

Celebration of the Installation of
The Most Reverend Gary Michael Gordon “Xyolhmetoxw”
as the Seventeenth Bishop of Victoria

August 28, 2014
Memorial of St. Augustine
St. Andrew's Cathedral
Victoria, British Columbia

The Bishop's Coat of Arms

The left side of the shield is the Arms of the Diocese of Victoria.

The silver cross of St. Andrew on a field of blue honours the patron saint of the Cathedral church of the Diocese.

It is surmounted by a gold antique crown from the Coat of Arms of the Province of British Columbia, where it signifies Victoria, or Victory, the name of the See City of the Diocese.

The border of small waves surrounding the blue field indicates the geographical setting of the Diocese which includes Vancouver Island and the numerous small islands surrounding it.

The gold mitre above the shield symbolizes the Episcopal Office.

Above the shield is the 'galero' (green hat) with six tassels on either side, which signals that these are the Arms of a Roman Catholic Bishop.

The shield is placed on a double gold processional cross as an additional mark of Office.

The right side of the shield is the Arms of Bishop Gary Michael Gordon. On it, extending to the four sides, is a white cross with a white circle at its centre. On the circle is a red and black salmon in the Coast Salish style by artist Stan Green of Skowkale First Nation. In the upper left and lower right quarters on the shield are the letters A and M interlaced, in white.

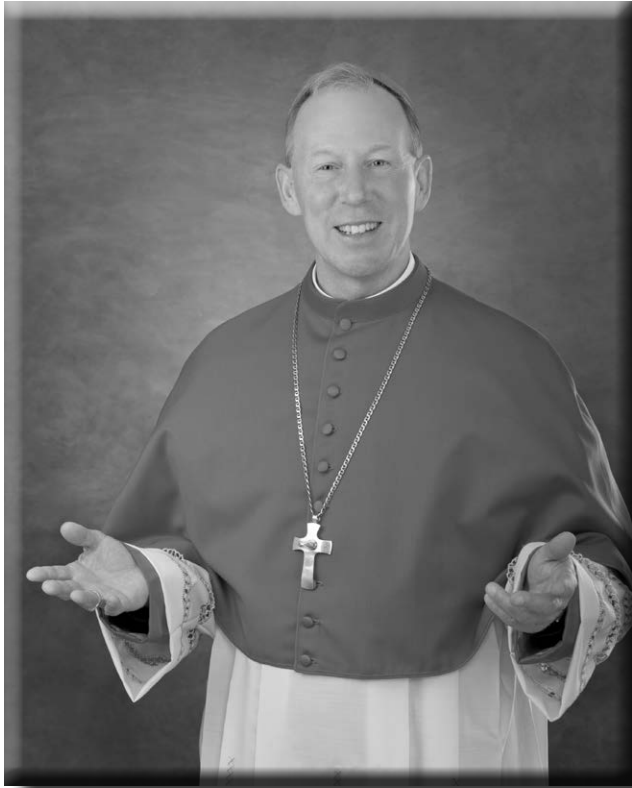

The red shield has multiple symbolisms. The red is a high colour of the First Nations and a symbol of the blood of Christ, our Saviour. The white cross is the encounter of crossing paths of the people of Canada today and white comes from the direction of the north. These are two of the sacred colours of the First Nations with whom Bishop Gordon has worked for the greater part of his priesthood. Red and white are also the national colours of Canada, and represent Bishop Gordon's service as a parish priest in several parts of his homeland.

The salmon refers to the gift of the Creator to West Coast First Nations as a staple food and blessing, and its ancient meaning as a Christian symbol.

The interlaced 'A & M' are a reference to the Virgin Mary. Bishop Gordon's devotion to her forms a significant part of his faith.

Bishop Gary Michael Gordon

The Most Reverend Gary Michael Gordon was born on June 10, 1957, in Vancouver, British Columbia. He attended Christ the King Seminary in Mission, British Columbia; Resurrection College in Waterloo, Ontario; and St. Peter's Seminary in London, Ontario, where he graduated in 1982.

Bishop Gary was ordained to the priesthood on May 22, 1982, by Archbishop James Carney at his home parish, St. Francis de Sales, Burnaby. During his almost 24 years working as the Pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Chilliwack and St. Joseph's Parish in Mission, British Columbia, he was very involved with First Nations Peoples. On May 6, 2006, shortly after being named Bishop of Whitehorse, Bishop Gary was invited to the Richard Malloway Longhouse in Chilliwack for a naming ceremony and received the name 'Xyolhmetoxw', which means 'taking care of the people' in Halq'eméylem, the language of the Stó:lō Nation.

He continued working in this ministry when, on January 5, 2006, he was appointed by His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI as Bishop of the Diocese of Whitehorse; an event described by Bishop Gary as "hearing a call from God to go to the great white north," which he happily followed. He was ordained and installed as the 5th Bishop of Whitehorse on March 22, 2006.

Bishop Gary also served as the Pacific Regional Representative of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCC) with the Interfaith Committee on Chaplaincy of the Correctional Service of Canada (1994-2006), and was the CCCC Principal Liaison and spokesperson on the Interfaith Committee (2002-2006).

Since 2007, Bishop Gordon has served as the CCCC Bishopponens for Catholics involved in prison chaplaincy and pastoral services. In addition, he has served as Chairman of the CCCC Standing Committee for Relations with Movements and Associations since 2011, after previously serving on the former Episcopal Commission for Relations with Associations of Clergy, Consecrated Life and Laity (2007-2008). He has been a member of the Anglican/Roman Catholic Bishops' Dialogue since 2007, and has served as its Co-Chairman since 2009. Bishop Gordon is the Liaison Bishop to Serra International in Canada (Serra International promotes and supportes vocations to the priesthood and religious life), a post he has held since 2011.

On June 14, 2014, Pope Francis appointed Most Reverend Gary Gordon as the 17th Bishop of Victoria. Bishop Gordon succeeds the Most Reverend Richard Gagnon who was appointed Archbishop of Winnipeg on October 28, 2013.

Homily

Bishop Gary Gordon

Profession of Faith

All bow at words in italics

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator
of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of God
the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

Love One Another

©1987 Robert J Dufford SJ

REFRAIN:

Love one an - oth - er as I have loved you. Care for each oth - er. I have cared for you. — Bear each oth - er's bur - dens.
Bind each oth - er's wounds; and so you will know my re - turn. —

1. My friends do you know what I have done for you,
I have washed your feet with my hands.
If I your Lord have knelt at your feet
You should do at each other's feet as I have done
for you.
2. When the world will hate you and revile you,
When they laugh at your care for the poor.
When they hold you in darkness and imprison your tongue,
Remember how they listened to me.
3. This bread which I give is My body.
This cup holds the blood of my life:
And all will be broken that you may have life,
That you may learn to forgive.
4. For love is patient, love is kind,
Love is always there to forgive, to endure,
All the world will crumble, but love will remain,
For love's own self is God.

L'Arche Hymn

1. Jésus, je voudrais te chanter sur ma route
Jésus, je voudrais t'annoncer à mes voisins partout;
Car toi seul es la vie et la paix et l'amour;
Jésus, je voudrais te chanter sur ma route.
2. Lord Jesus, I'll praise you as long as I journey
May all of my joy be a faithful reflection of you.
May the earth and the sea and the sky join my song.
Lord Jesus, I'll praise you as long as I journey.
3. Jésus, je voudrais te servir sur ma route.
Jésus, je voudrais partager les souffrances de ta
croix:
Car tu livres pour moi et ton corps et ton sang;
Jésus, je voudrais te servir sur ma route.

Les Petites Soeurs de Jésus

4. I fear in the dark and the doubt of my journey;
But courage will come with the sound of your steps
by my side.
And with all of the family you saved by your love,
We'll sing to your dawn at the end of our journey.
5. Lord Jesus, you shall be my song as I journey,
I'll tell everybody about you wherever I go.
For our life and our peace and our love is yourself.
Lord Jesus, you shall be my song as I journey.
